

Raising the bar in fundamental analysis since 1998

Products and Services for Portfolio Managers and Investment Advisors

For more than a decade, MIS has been assisting managers and advisors with focused investment research and analysis. Our superb reputation is built on integrity, quality and measurable value.

In addition to our flag-ship products the Merriam Report© and Merriam Report Quarterly Newsletter, MIS also provides custom research and analysis services to institutional investors with emphasis on:

- Portfolio analysis (sector or top-holding reviews)
- Due-diligence (team and/or client specific projects)

For more information on MIS services and rates, please email info@merriamreport.com and request our brochure How We Help Portfolio Managers and Investment Advisors.

Privacy Disclosure: MIS values your privacy above all else and strictly enforces policies to protect it. We do not share personal information of our clients with any third party vendor or entity. All correspondence between MIS and its clients or prospective clients is confidential. Under certain circumstances, MIS will provide references to potential clients at discretion of MIS and upon expressed consent of granting client.